Guillaume Sauzedde appointed Managing Director of CEVA Logistics' Central & Eastern Europe cluster

Baar, Switzerland, 10 October, 2018 – CEVA Logistics has appointed Guillaume Sauzedde as Managing Director of its Central & Eastern Europe cluster. He will be based in Warsaw, Poland and takes up his position on 5 November 2018, reporting directly to CEO, Xavier Urbain.

Sauzedde brings more than 20 years' experience across the logistics industry to his new role – fifteen of which have been spent in Eastern Europe. Prior to joining CEVA Logistics, he was Managing Director for Kuehne & Nagel in Poland where he had full responsibility across all business lines including Air Freight, Ocean Freight, Ground and Contract Logistics.

He succeeds Piotr Zborowski who is leaving CEVA to pursue other career opportunities.

Speaking about Sauzedde's arrival, Xavier Urbain says: "Guillaume brings a full range of logistics skills to his new role and his strong knowledge of Eastern European markets will be a key driver for the future development of this cluster. We warmly welcome him to our team. At the same time I would like to thank Piotr for his work during his time at CEVA Logistics. He hands over a solid organization ready for future growth and we wish him well in his future endeavours".
