

CEVA publishes its Sustainability Report 2018

Baar, Switzerland, 9 April, 2019 – CEVA Logistics has published its Sustainability Report 2018. The report is the first one since 2015 and is developed in accordance with the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI). CEVA has further conducted a materiality assessment and selected the most relevant topics to manage and to report on for the first time. This publication provides an insight into them and CEVA's latest global and local sustainability initiatives.

CEVA is committed to operating its business in a sustainable manner that creates value for its stakeholders. The Sustainability Report 2018 showcases the activities CEVA has undertaken in the past year in order to contribute to this commitment, to continue delivering high quality supply chain management services, to reduce its environmental impact, and furthermore to develop local communities and the skills of its employees.

Key highlights of the 2018 activities

- Development of CEVA's first materiality assessment
- 10% decrease in Lost Time Severity Rate since 2017
- 100% of CEVA locations are ISO 9001:2015 certified
- Increased investments into digitalization and big data solutions
- Employees received an average of 15,24 hours of training, as a result of the investment in training and development
- Membership at the Clean Cargo Working Group (CCWG) and Sustainable Air Freight Initiative (SAFI), to be part of the sustainability discussions of the industry
- Several local environmental and social initiatives, including collaboration with suppliers and customers.

In the upcoming years, CEVA will continue its efforts to answer customer requirements and to contribute to the solutions of global environmental and industry challenges.
