CEVA Logistics appoints Niels van Namen to head Global Healthcare Business Development

Baar, Switzerland, 18 October, 2019 – As part of its continuing focus on the expansion of its Healthcare business, CEVA Logistics is pleased to announce the appointment of Niels van Namen to the position of Global Head of Healthcare Business Development. He will report to CEVA's Chief Commercial Officer, Laurent Binetti.

With more than 20 years' experience in healthcare and over a decade in the healthcare logistics industry, Niels van Namen has an extensive track record in the sector. His previous positions include Business Development Director Healthcare for DSV and VP Healthcare Europe for UPS' Healthcare and Life Science Sector.

As Global Sector Leader, he will drive growth and develop the strategy for CEVA's growing Healthcare Sector and will be based from one of the company's strategically-located healthcare facilities at Culemborg in the Netherlands.

Laurent Binetti, Chief Commercial Officer – CEVA Logistics, says: "With a vast network throughout the logistics and Healthcare industries, Niels will be a great asset for the future growth of CEVA in the Healthcare sector. With his appointment, we are excited to start a new era in this field and to deliver ever more innovative, patient-centric solutions to our customers."
